EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Record which follows came from the following sources:

Commencing with William Chamberlain, who came to Massachusetts from England prior to 1648, and died in Billerica, Mass., and down to and including Joseph Chamberlain, of Amenia, New York, it was taken from the Records of the Chamberlain Association of Amenia, Report 1908 - 1909 - 1910, by Sarah Moore Stuart, of Binghamton, N.Y.

Mrs. Stuart was the daughter of John Moore, son of Loretta Chamberlain Moore. Her grandmother, Loretta Chamberlain, was sister of my grandfather, Park Chamberlain. Mrs. Stuart sent me the material, including the names and dates of birth of all the children of the above-named families, together with some pictures and other family items which had come down to her through her grandmother.

I have included here only the names of those in the direct line, but the other names will be found in the records of the Chamberlain Family Association, should anyone desire to learn more about them.

The record from Captain William Chamberlain, son of Joseph Chamberlain, and following through the family of William Chamberlain, is taken from the family Bible of Judge William Chamberlain. This Bible, printed in 1822, was passed down to his son, Park Chamberlain, and to his son, Wm. I Chamberlain, and is now in my possession as son of Wm. I. Chamberlain. Photostatic copies of the Family Record pages from this Bible have been furnished to a number of cousins and other relatives requesting them.

The remaining Record was compiled by my aunt, Charlotte Chamberlain Girton, my father's sister, and found by me in her pages after her death. I have no doubt as to its substantial accuracy.

Wm. Chamberlain.

CHAMBERLAIN FAMILY RECORD

CHAMBERLAIN, William - the first of the line in America, was born in England, place and date unknown. He took a deed to a house in Boston, Mass. on October 30, 1647. Two days later he was admitted an inhabitant of the Town of Woburn (see Woburn Town Records, Vol. 1, page 13). He married about 1648. His wife's name was Rebecca, probably Rebecca Shelly (see Records, page 99). There were twelve children, ten sons and two daughters.

CHAMBERLAIN, Clement - son of William and Rebecca Chamberlain, was born May 30, 1669, in Billerica, Mass., and died at some date prior to 1741. In 1692 he married Mary ------, name unfound. They continued to live in Billerica. There were nine children, four sons and five daughters.

CHAMBERLAIN, Joseph - son of Clement Chamberlain, was born in Billerica in November, 1696, and died in Amenia, Dutchess County, New York, in 1765. According to the Town Records of Billerica, he married Mary Johnson about 1719, exact date not given. They moved to Lebanon, Conn., then to Mansfield, then to Tolland, then to Amenia. There were twelve children, seven daughters and five sons.

CHAMBERLAIN, William - son of Joseph and Mary Chamberlain, was born January 25, 1744, in Tolland, Connecticut. On March 27, 1767, he married Abigail Hatch. He died November 27, 1810. He served as Captain in the Revolutionary Army. There were nine children, five sons and four daughters.

CHAMBERLAIN, William - son of Captain William Chamberlain and Abigail Hatch Chamberlain, was born November 12, 1771, at or near Binghamton. On March 12, 1798, he was married to Lucy Park, daughter of Ebenezer Park of Binghamton. He was a prominent citizen of Binghamton and for a long period served as a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Broome County. His death occurred on June 12, 1850, and there is a large family monument on the plot in a local cemetery. There were eight children, six daughters and two sons.

CHAMBERLAIN, Park - son of Judge William Chamberlain and Lucy Park Chamberlain, was born September 3, 1818, in Broome County. On March 20, 1844, he was married to Mary Rebecca White, of Binghamton. -- In 1870 or thereabouts they moved to Wyoming, Iowa, where he conducted a Fire Insurance Agency, until his death on March 7th, 1884. There were twelve children, all born in Binghamton, N.Y.

WHITE, Mary Rebecca - born August 5, 1828, in Goldens Bridge, Westchester County, N.Y. She was the daughter of Isaac Vail White and Mary Horton White. When she was a child her parents moved to Broome County, N.Y. and settled on a farm near Binghamton. She came from a sturdy New England ancestry, being a lineal descendant of Peregrine White, the first white child born in the United States. In 1884, in Binghamton, N.Y., she became the wife of Park Chamberlain. They made their home on a farm overlooking the city of Binghamton, where the State Hospital is now located. In 1864 they moved to Wyoming, Iowa. Mary Rebecca Chamberlain died December 2, 1903, and is buried at Wyoming, Iowa.
